The role is situated in the Midwest (Clare, Limerick, Tipperary,) It will require travel as needed, to other locations where NOVAS services are located. This role requires some element of flexibility and adaptability to deal with complex needs as they arise.

The Midwest Community Detox Project Worker will require a background in Social Care, Addiction Studies or relevant social science qualification with training and experience in the areas of Health, Wellbeing, and Addiction Studies. The successful candidate is expected to work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review.

Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples and families and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The Midwest Community Detox Project Worker has decision-making remit for the areas of Health and Recovery in collaboration with colleagues within NOVAS and Health & Recovery Team.

Oversight for the work in this role is provided by the Quality Client Sub Committee of the NOVAS Board of Directors.

The Midwest Community Detox Project Worker will at all times operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will at all times be informed by the best interests of the clients and tenants and ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.

Challenges

The nature of our work involves supporting the most vulnerable people who often have complex needs and may be survivors of trauma. As a result, during the course of your work you may engage with sensitive and confidential matters that require empathy, compassion and pragmatism. You may also encounter clients or tenants who are in distress, displaying challenging behaviours or struggle to moderate their behaviour. Patience, respect and an ability to remain professional and focused on deescalating is essential. Further training will be provided in Trauma Informed Practice or Crisis Prevention.

As an organisation that is largely funded by public money, effective use of resources is a continuous focus and challenge.
