

JOB DESCRIPTION NOVAS

Housing | Health | Recovery

Role:	Disability Outreach Worker	Post Holder:	Dei
Reports To:	Team Leader	Location:	Lincoln and Care
Salary:	This role is attached to a defined salary scale which ranges from £21,600 to £43,600 and appointments are made depending on experience.

Purpose of the Job

The role of Disability Outreach Worker is vital to the successful delivery of quality programmes and services in NOVA for our clients. The Disability Outreach Worker will support clients of NOVA Disability Services who live in the community.

The Disability Outreach Worker will report directly to the project Team Leader, will be a member of, and work collaboratively with the wider staff team, wider NOVA services, external service providers and local authorities in the region.

The Disability Outreach Worker is responsible for supporting clients to identify goals through relationship building, key-working and person-centred care planning. The Disability Outreach Worker will support the clients in sourcing housing options where appropriate and to sustain their current accommodation.

The Disability Outreach Worker will ensure the effective day to day running of the project in all aspects of health and safety. The Disability Outreach Worker will ensure that the hygiene and physical environment is always kept to a high standard. The Disability Outreach Worker may be required to carry clients in their own vehicles at times for the client to access community supports, such as medical appointments or social activities.

This role may include day and evening work (8 hour shifts), weekend work (8 hour shifts).

The Disability Outreach Worker will have a background in Social Care, minimum level 2, with training or experience in the areas of Homeless and/or Disability Services and will be expected to work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder.

It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review.